Family/Friends

As you may already know, my church, Hope Lutheran Church, is building a new church and preschool. We are nearing the finish, but have run short of funds. Our preschool teachers and children are anxiously awaiting completion so they can finally start the new school year.

We have set up a GoFundMe page and are prayerfully inviting donations to help us fulfill God's dream for US and open Hope's new church and preschool.

Please note: we are a 501c3 non-profit corporation and any gift you make is tax deductible.

You can follow our building progress on our Facebook page. <https://www.facebook.com/hopetemecula.org/>

Thank you for your help and prayers.

Blessings,
